Grains of Wheat from the Barns of Heaven

Inspirational quotes with St. J.B. Scalabrini

“The Lord is my Shepherd,
there is nothing I shall want” (Ps 23:1)

“To sacrifice himself in every way to expand the Kingdom of Jesus Christ in the souls, to risk his life – if need be – for the salvation of his beloved flock; to kneel before the world to implore from it, as a grace, permission to do it some good. This is the spirit, the character, the only ambition of a Bishop.” Address for the Episcopal Jubilee of Bishop Bonomelli, Cremona 1896

“God is love, and the more a person is united with God, the more the fullness of love abides in him/her. And this is why the bishop does not only love God, but also his brothers and sisters, and he loves all that is worthy of love.” Address for the Episcopal Jubilee of Bishop Bonomelli, Cremona 1896

“Those who know the Catechism are aware that life was given to us so as to move at a steady pace to conquer Heaven, following the path of virtue and doing good works.” Pastoral Letter to the Men and Women Teachers of the Catechetical Schools of the City and Diocese of Piacenza, 1877

“Whoever knows the Catechism knows that loving God does not mean hurting one’s neighbour and true charity does not destroy one’s good reputation or being vengeful; but it means forgiving, being compassionate, living in peace with everyone and practicing the works of mercy.” Pastoral Letter to the Teachers of the Catechetical Schools of the City and Diocese of Piacenza, 1877

“Renew your most fervent prayers of faith, humility, hope and love before receiving Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and, after receiving him, stay close to him for a long time, thanking him. Then you will leave the Eucharistic table a much better person and more ready and willing to continue your journey.” Pastoral Letter, 1902

“Faith is the only means, which, after all the research and studies to improve the human condition, is still able to heal our wounds, nobilitate our insignificance, since it is through it that human intelligence flows through time into eternity, and our thoughts can span from the smallest grain of salt to the immensity of the uncreated Being.” Pastoral Letter, 1884

“As a bright star, faith rises over the world and with its amazing brightness shines over it from pole to pole. Faith is what inspires a missionary to go forth.” Homily of the Epiphany 1905

“The one whose faith is firmly rooted in God and whose hope is anchored in heaven, hopes against hope. When he wills, Jesus Christ will speak to the winds and the sea, and a great calm will ensue after the storm.” Address for the Priestly Jubilee of Pope Leo XIII, 1887
