LOOKING BACK TO THE SACRED HEARTS OF MARY AND JESUS.

Last Friday we celebrated a great feast, actually a “solemnity” of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, with the same liturgical importance of a Sunday. Yesterday we celebrated another great feast, the “memorial” of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I want you to notice that we did not celebrate the “Immaculate Conception” but the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Why is it that the church gives so much importance to these two feasts?

These two celebrations are quite recent in years and we can add the feast of Divine Mercy as its worthy conclusion. This is a trilogy which unveils the final revelation of the nature of God, which is love and mercy. Why is God giving the secret mystery of His divine nature to the world now? Because love is what is missing the most in our modern era.

St. John Paul II called the last century as the “century of Cain” when brother killed brother. There were more deaths during the last century than in all the rest of the centuries in human history put together. Our industrial revolution has reduced the ability to love in most of the western societies. Our exaggerated individualism has broken the bonds of love in most of our families and mankind has become more and more empty of the most important necessity of life, which is Love.

The world is dying of “thirst”; the world is dying of hunger; God is offering us the real water of life and the true food of our souls; and this is symbolized by the two hearts of Jesus and Mary. Why then the hearts and not the spirits or souls of Jesus and Mary? Because we humans have one center of all our life, both material and spiritual, which is our heart. Everything begins and is completed in our heart. Both physical and spiritual, emotional and material life is centered in our heart. And because both Jesus and Mary have a heart, they can understand our situation and offer consolation through their hearts to our hearts. It is also important to know that we have the possibility of understanding them, as well as they can understand us, because both them and us we have the same feelings, the same desires, the same joys and consolations. Our hearts can really communicate with each other, because they all are HUMAN. Joys and pains, hopes and worries can go through our hearts as well as the hearts of Jesus and Mary.

This is the final and greatest revelation of God’s mysteries for our modern times. The final stage of this revelation has come to us through St. Faustina just 50 years ago. We are very fortunate to have received such a marvelous revelation during these trying times. Again and again in human history we see that the love of God is always ready to intervene for the salvation of all His children.

SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. True devotion to the Sacred Heart means devotion to the Divine Heart of Christ insofar as His Heart represents and recalls His love for us.

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives, living and deceased. We ask for Your blessings for them all. For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by God.
