WHAT IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN?

Jesus in the Gospel of this Sunday talks to us, as He did during the past two Sundays, of the Kingdom of Heaven. He never gives us a clear definition, but He gives us many images and comparisons. As you remember He spoke about the good soil, then the good seed, then the mustard seed and today he is comparing it to “a treasure”, a “fine pearl” and a “net”, which catches good and bad fish.

BUT what is really the “kingdom of Heaven” that Jesus came to establish here on earth, as it is in heaven? An easy, general response is that “whatever is good” is part of this kingdom, because in heaven there is only “good”. So the kingdom of heaven is also in people who are not baptized, but live according to their conscience and their idea of “good”.

We can also respond by saying that the kingdom of heaven is the like creation before the original sin. If we read the Bible, we see that before Adam and Eve committed the disobedience, the whole world was beautiful and in perfect harmony. Jesus actually came to restore creation and mankind to the original plan of God. This is also the goal of the whole redemption of Jesus, to restore the creation to its original beauty and original plan of God.

Another way to understand the “kingdom of heaven” is when people live perfectly the will of God, on earth as it is in heaven, as we say in the “our Father” every day. The major problem in the world today is precisely the fact that men run away from the will of God. The world, before the pandemic, was going exactly the opposite way; God had been put out of the door and we humans made a big mess of the beautiful creation of God. Many times we were going against the will of God and then we complained because the world was going bad. Now we need to go back to follow the original plan, which is the will of God.

The kingdom of His Divine Will is what Jesus came to re-establish on earth and what we are asking for in our prayers every time we pray the same prayer that Jesus has given us: “Thy kingdom come, on earth as it is in heaven”.
