NOTHING CAN SEPARATE US FROM THE LOVE OF GOD

The second reading of this Sunday's Liturgy sets the tone for the whole celebration. St. Paul to the Romans (remember that he was in house arrest, waiting for the trial which led to his execution) is saying that "nothing, neither death, nor life, nor Angels nor rulers... nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord". Why? Because nobody can stop God from giving us His love. Even the love that we give back to God is itself a gift from God; so really there is no way that we can stop the flow of this love from God to us and from us to God. Not even sin can stop God; actually, it is because of sin that Jesus came to bring the love of God to us.

But where can we find this "love of God" in our life, in our world?

The Gospel comes to our aid, by presenting to us the miracle of the multiplication of bread for five thousand men, without counting women and children. (So probably there were more than ten thousand people!).

This miracle of the loaves of bread is clearly pointing to another bread: the Holy Eucharist. As matter of fact the same words of Jesus are used every day at the consecration of the Mass: Looked up to heaven, blessed, broke, gave to his disciples. So, where do we find the love of God? Surely IN THE EUCHARIST. It is the greatest sign of the love of Jesus, who, even though He ascended to Heaven, however He left here with us His Body and Blood in our tabernacles. It is the best invention that God could come up with, so that the real presence of God could remain with us till the end of times.

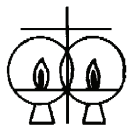

In our church we have the Blessed Sacrament exposed all day and every day! That is also a clear sign that Jesus has a predilection for our family of faith. He has decided to remain with us all the days of our life. Let us respond with mutual love to His great love for each one of us, by visiting him in the Holy Sacrament of the altar: THE EUCHARIST. Nothing can separate us from the love of God!
