COME AND SEE.

Faith is not based on an ideology, but on a living experience of the person of our Lord Jesus. The account for today's Gospel is very clear and very meaningful for us all.

First, we have John the Baptist who is pointing at Jesus as the Lamb of God. This is a great definition, which was very clear to the Jews of that time; they knew very well what a 'lamb of sacrifice' was all about in the temple. Now, as John is saying, this is the lamb of sacrifice offered by God to fulfill His promises; (remember Abraham's reassurance to his son Isaac: God will provide).

Two of John's disciples follow Jesus, who asks them: "Who are you looking for?" I am sure that Jesus knew that they were looking for Him, but the question wants to go a bit deeper: What are you really looking for? He invites them to go examine their motives; He wants more than just a simple feeling of curiosity; he wants to clarify their intentions and at the same time to strengthen their resolute.

The disciples respond with another question: "Where are you staying?" This is a clear sign that they were looking for an experience of life, not just an information or an intellectual definition.

Jesus responds to the challenge with an invitation: "Come and See". They have to make up their own mind through a personal experience. Come and see for yourselves. You make your own decision. And in fact, the Gospel says that they remained with him "that whole day".

Finally, Andrew goes home and invite his brother Simon to make the same experience. Jesus on the spot changes his name and begins building his church on this rock (Peter).

Faith is not a matter of words, but a matter of experience. Many times, we remain at the level of words and thoughts and we are not transformed by living experiences. That is why it is so easy for many people to abandon their faith; it has nothing to do with their lives! Evangelization is exactly the ability to allow people to make their own experience of the Lord. Come and See! This is the invitation for each one of us!

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

One of the main activities for the "Year of St. Joseph" will be the preparation and celebration of the CONSECRATION to St. Joseph, both individually and as a family.

The actual celebration will be on March 19, 2021 feast of "St. Joseph Patron of the Universal Church"; we will prepare with 33 days of special reflection on the life and virtues of St. Joseph, which will start on February 15, 2021. We hope to have it both in English and Spanish. There will be a video conference each day and on Saturday morning we will share the content of the whole week together (either in person if possible or in zoom).

You need to register, because we have to buy a book that goes with it, which we have to order from the US. The cost will be $25. CAN.

Just send an email to: office@stcatherine.ca or call by phone (905) 272-1454. Thanks.
