YOU ARE MY REFUGE, LORDMASS
INTENTIONS

The supplication of the poor Leper to Jesus in today's Gospel is also our supplication: "If you choose, you can make me clean". We can say: "If you choose, you can change my life, Lord".

First of all, we have to admire the gentleness and respect of this prayer: If you choose! There is no arrogance, no demand, no entitlement; "if you choose". Our prayer should always have this basic attitude of humility. God is in charge and we have no "right" to his grace and healing. We surely can count on His love as a Father, but have no right whatsoever in front of God almighty.

Secondly, the poor leper is asking to "make him clean". It is true that the faithful Jew knew that even physical sickness comes from spiritual evil; that is why he is asking for a cleansing of soul and body. It is interesting that Jesus tells him to go and show himself to the priests first. There is a religious undertone in all this event, which has beneficial consequences on a physical level.

To be clean, that is the pre-condition to all our troubles; clean of intentions, clean of self-interests, clean of future orientation. Many times we do not receive the fruits of our prayer, because we are not clean of self-interest, of pride and other worldly pursuits. God cannot grant our requests, if they will ultimately increase our uncleanness and selfishness.

We must have a clean intention to follow His will. If our prayers go against His Plan for our life, then He has to wait until we line up our vision with His vision and His plan for us.

To be clean, ultimately, requires certainly to be clean of sin. Sin takes us to the opposite direction, away from the plan of God, even though many times it promises us success and joy that we wrongly believe necessary for our life. Sometimes God has to allow failures and sin in our life, to make us realize that we are walking in the wrong direction. We might feel defeated at first, but then we realize that we needed some tough love in order to find our true direction and meaning in life.

Then we finally can say with the psalmist: You are my refuge, o Lord. You are the only one who can make me clean in mind, in heart, in soul and body.
