FATHER, SAVE ME FROM THIS HOUR ?

The Gospel of St. John this week gives us a few points for reflection.

First of all, we see that some of the Greeks ask Philip whether or not they can see Jesus. Maybe they were trying to understand what was happening with this famous preacher. Maybe they were interested in some political alliance against the Romans. But Jesus answered in a very strange way: “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified”. But His glory was not the glory they were thinking about. Actually, it was the opposite, because immediately He explains that He has to die in order to give life, like the grain of wheat. And then He says that in order to have life, you must lose it.

Then Jesus seems to have a moment of crisis, when He asks the Father: “Father, save me from this hour?” But then immediately he adds: “But it is for this reason that I have come to this hour.”

Here we clearly see the human reaction to his death. Humanly speaking, no one wants to die; but then He recommits Himself to the will of God, recognizing that He has come precisely for this hour, when God will be glorified by His death. And the voice of the Father reconfirms: “I have glorified it and I will glorify it again”.

The mystery of salvation, which is realized through the sacrifice, not of a lamb, but through the sacrifice of the Lamb of God, is the greatest glory to God and the final victory against the “ruler of this world”.

We are getting close to the ultimate battle between the ruler of this world and the Son of Man. The ultimate sacrifice which will obtain eternal life, not only for the people of Israel, but for all peoples.

How do we participate in this final battle?
