THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

WE PRAY FOR ALL VOCATIONS

On April 25 the whole Catholic Church will pray for VOCATIONS. Originally it was intended as a response to the invitation of Jesus, who said: Pray to the Father of the vineyard to send laborers to his vineyard, mainly religious and priestly laborers/vocations.

However, especially after the Vatican Council II, we discover that we all have a vocation in the Kingdom of God. We cannot consider “called” only the few who respond to the specific vocation to the priesthood and religious life. WE ALL HAVE A VOCATION; WE ALL ARE CALLED.

The most important calling is the vocation to form a “Christian” family. If we do not have real Christian families, we will not have other vocations, like teachers, doctors, lawyers, truck drivers, mothers and fathers and ultimately priests and religious.

The first step to take is to realize that we all have our own “religious” vocation, because it comes straight from God at the moment of our baptism. If the father and mother does not realize that his/her family is not for personal enjoyment but for God, then we cannot expect religious vocations from that family. If the young teacher is applying to the Catholic School Board only because he/she needs a job, then no religious vocations are coming out of that school. If our Christian communities are not able to form Christian families (where God is at the center of their lives) then we waste our time to pray for priestly vocations. Before planting the seed God wants to prepare a good soil.

So this week we pray for ALL vocations. But first of all, let us ask ourselves: Do I know my vocation in life? Do I see my life as a “divine” calling from God? What am I going to say to God, if I didn’t even bother to find out the vocation that he has given me since the beginning of my life? Maybe I am now retired, on in years, still I can spend the rest of my life to respond to my vocation. There is still time! That is why the Church reminds us every year to pray for vocations, our vocation. Maybe this is the year I will find out what God had asked me 40 or 50 years ago!

From Monday, April 19th during the daily Masses, we will organize special prayers for vocations and on Saturday evening, after the 6:00pm Mass, we will have a special celebration about all vocations in the Catholic Church.
