MANY OF HIS DISCIPLES TURNED BACK

The mystery of the Eucharist is even today too difficult to comprehend for many people even for many Catholics. More than 50% of them do not believe in the real presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

Seeing that many of his disciples were leaving Him, Jesus does not attempt to clarify or water down the truth; He tells them: "Do you also wish to go away?" He cannot diminish the mystery of his presence in the Eucharist. This is the reality, either you take it or leave it.

Today we have in Christianity many truths very difficult to understand and accept, but Jesus is not going to water down or adjust the truth of our faith to the situations of our time. Surely Jesus is very patient with our weaknesses, but He cannot change the truth to make it palatable to our taste. For example, one difficult thing to accept today is "contraception". Most of young people, because they are not able to control their lust, they resume to the pill in order to avoid unwanted pregnancies; at times they also recur to abortion. Another issue is "gay marriage" which is portrayed as a "human right", while for Jesus is a grave sin. Another coming up is "euthanasia", which is falsely portrayed as a dignified death. Finally, especially in our schools, we are facing the deceitful gender theory, as if God did not know what He was doing when he created beautiful babies as men and women!

Certainly, we can try to explain the many difficult situations in which we are overwhelmed in our times, but the truth remains the truth. We have a choice: either we take it as it is, or we leave it. Jesus was ready to lose all his disciples, but He would not change the truth for their sake.

It is the same today. If we want to be Catholics, we must take the Gospel as Jesus has given it to us; it would not serve the good of the people, if we were to accommodate and adapt the truth to their likings. They would remain cheated of the real truth and would not be able to save themselves. Half a ladder will not bring you to the second floor. Half a truth will not satisfy your soul. Either we take it as it is or we abandon the word of Jesus. But St. Peter comes to our rescue and says: "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life".
