THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

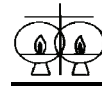

SUNDAY OF REJOICING

The Liturgy today gives a sense of great joy, because we are almost there! There is only another Sunday and then we will celebrate the birth of our Saviour.

We rejoice because we are sure that God is coming back to this confused and deprived earth. We have lost the way to God, so we are invited back to the road to Bethlehem, where, like the shepherds, we will find the Baby Jesus, full of light and full of love.

This for us is a very timely announcement because we are living very difficult moments in our world today. Both physically, psychologically, socially and spiritually the world today is full of uncertainty; only one thing is sure, and that is the historical fact that Jesus has already come and remains with us. And if God is with us *(Emmanuel) then He is in charge and He will take care of all our problems. We only have to go to Bethlehem, together with the shepherds, and discover that the Baby Jesus is really born among us. So don't believe anything and anybody that contradicts our faith. Don't be afraid of anything because "nothing is impossible to God". And the birth of a Baby, who is the Son of the Most High, is the greatest reassurance that God is with us and that God is still in command.

Yes, we Christians cannot be sad or confused; we have the light and the life of God in this new baby from Bethlehem. He is coming back this year, to give new life and new hope, for all those who want to believe and welcome Him. "Let us go to Bethlehem and see what the angels have announced to us". The Glory of God will appear again in our world today.

SCALABRINI THE FOUNDER

"I do believe I have to speak at length about the need to provide help and spiritual care for the Italians, who emigrate to America, because the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith is better aware of the situation than others, as a result of the report of the archbishops of New York and New Orleans and of the Fathers of the third Council of Baltimore. Similar reports, perhaps even more discouraging, had been undoubtedly submitted also by the bishops of South America and Australia... It is clear that we must provide for those who have emigrated, for those who will be emigrating, and for their children".
