NEITHER I CONDEMN YOU
From now on do not sin again!

Another beautiful story of delicate mercy! The story of the adulterous woman reveals the incredible compassion and mercy of our Father. Jesus is confronted with a case of adultery, punishable with death by stoning, according to the Law of Moses. The Pharisees let Jesus know that they we “commanded” to stone “women like that”. So it is not a choice, it is a condemnation, already stipulated by the Law. They want to see how Jesus will be able to get out of this situation; he who is the friend of sinners. On top of it all, this is a woman “caught in the act of adultery!” There is not excuse, no doubt; she must be eliminated from the community.

First of all, in order to commit adultery, you need a man; where is he in the story? Secondly the Pharisees are not interested in the woman, but on their jealousy, which is blinding them to see the mercy of our God. They are trying to find legal pretexts in order to eliminate this Jesus of Nazareth, who is subverting all their religious system and taking with him so many people.

But the best response that Jesus could give to the accusation of the Pharisees is when Jesus, bending down next to the woman, starts writing in the sand, probably their own sins! “The one who is without sin can cast the first stone!” What a shame! No one was without sin! No one had a right to judge the poor woman, who probably had been abused by some of them!

“Did any condemn you?” – He asked the woman! NO! “Then I do not judge you either, BUT go and sin no more!” Yes Jesus sends the woman free from guilt, but free to sin no more! That is the real freedom!

God is only interested in mercy! And mercy overcomes and fulfills all justice. The greatest proof of it is on the Cross! “Father, forgive them because they do not know what they are doing!”

SCALABRINI THE FOUNDER

“Our faith reminds us that from its earliest moments human existence is weighed down by the curse of a fall an arcane and mysterious fall and yet quite evident and appalling in its consequences. Pursued by the sword of divine justice we enter by our birth into a world which has itself been afflicted by that original curse and has been sown with thorns and thistles.” J.B. Scalabrini – Pastoral Letter on Penance-1895
