THE ENTRANCE INTO THE CITY OF JERUSALEM

Today the Liturgy is called "PALM SUNDAY" but in reality we celebrate the final entrance of Jesus into the city and the temple of Jerusalem.

Externally it looks more like a joke, entering on the back of a donkey, followed by a bunch of children and peasants, waiving branches and palms; but spiritually it is the conclusion and fulfillment of the mission of the Messiah. Jesus is actually taking over the city capital as a king; actually the children are singing: "Hosanna to the King, son of David, who comes in the name of the Lord." Jesus not only takes spiritual possession of the city, but also of the Temple. This signifies a complete change from the Old Testament into the new kingdom of God. For the faithful Jew the temple is the house of God, where God is living among His people; no temple means no God among His people. Now Jesus, the Son of God, the eternal high priest is taking over the temple and his priesthood will last forever. (As a matter of fact, after the destruction of the temple of Solomon by the Romans in the year 70DC, for all these centuries, the Jewish nation was not able to rebuild a new temple, because now the only temple of God is the body of Christ).

The taking over of Jerusalem is not for glory, honour and triumph, but for the crucifixion, death and resurrection; a totally different conquest from what even the disciples were waiting for! It is the victory of the cross.

What about our entry in Jerusalem, into our life and our soul? Are we able to enter spiritually in our life, not only materially and physically? Are we ready to accompany Jesus to his ultimate sacrifice? Can we walk into Jerusalem, into the temple and then follow Him till the calvary? If we do not accept our death, we cannot receive our resurrection. Together with Jesus we enter Jerusalem, we walk together to the Calvary and then surely we will find the resurrection.

Hosanna to the King of Israel! Hosanna to the son of David! Hosanna to the cross and resurrection of Jesus! We welcome Him into our life as our King and Savior.

SCALABRINI THE FOUNDER

Who hasn't heard the anguished cry of the Apostle (St. Paul)? And who, having heard it, has not been shaken by it deep within himself? "While I want to do good-he was saying-, I feel drawn to evil. In my inner self I delight in the law of God, but there is another law I find present within me, which resists the law of my mind and seeks to make me a slave of sin." It is the painful story of the children of Adam.
J.B. Scalabrini-Pastoral Letter on Penance-1895
