COME FOLLOW ME!

This Sunday we celebrate the fact that WE ALL ARE CALLED TO BE DISCIPLES; we all have a vocation! In the gospel reading of today we see three “callings” by Jesus.

The first actually is a calling from a good young man, who wants to follow Jesus. It seems that Jesus is warning this enthusiastic young man, that discipleship comes at a cost! “Foxes have holes, birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head”. Jesus does not want to discourage this young man, but he wants him to know the reality of becoming a true disciple. To become a true disciple, one has to put Jesus in front of him/her and make a radical decision to follow Him in all things and for the whole life. Naturally that young man was a “good kid” but that is not enough to become a disciple of Christ. How many of our children are “good kids” but surely they are not disciples of Christ.

The second calling comes directly from Jesus: “Come follow Me”! What a great privilege to be invited by Jesus himself! But the young man says: “Lord, FIRST let me go and bury my father”. Jesus answers in a very stern way: “Let the dead bury their own dead” (Almost insulting!) Isn’t it the fourth commandment of God to honor father and mother?

The third calling is almost in the same line: “I will follow you Lord, BUT FIRST let me say farewell to those at home”. Again, that word: FIRST, which means that Jesus is not the FIRST, but second, after the father or after the family. Both times the young men were not free to follow Jesus in a radical way.

Most of us are in that situation, with responsibilities for our families and at the same time with the desire to be true disciples of Jesus. Naturally we cannot abandon our responsibilities, but surely, we can change our attitudes and our priorities. Jesus has to be always first, and He will help us to serve and help our families. On Sunday morning, Jesus has to be first! Our prayer has to be first! Our fidelity and commitments are important, but they must follow the light and commandments of Jesus. Many times, we only find excuses to put our desires and interests ahead of our commitment to Jesus, who has to remain ALWAYS number one in our decisions and our lives.

BLESSED SCALABRINI THE FOUNDER

If we were to be alone in the struggle of our passions against the spirit, we would be trembling in fear and fail. But God is with us, with his light, with his strength and with the grace of his sacraments. Jesus is not a cold and austere legislator who came to hand us a law. No, my dearest children! He knows well our frailty and he came to lift our burden and to give us courage. And should we fail miserably, he stretches out his hand to us to raise us up and to draw us close to his heart.

J.B. Scalabrini-Pastoral Letter on Penance-1895
