FIRE and DIVISION

"I came to bring fire to the earth"! "Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? NO, I tell you, but rather division! From now on a household will be divided: father against son and son against father, daughter against mother and mother against daughter!"

It seems that Jesus is contradictory in what He is saying here. In fact, He is the prince of peace, and how is it that he says that He is not bringing peace but division?

Jesus is looking at the consequences of his message, not so much at the causes; He is not causing division but those who follow Him will have to face much opposition and division. And this seems to be real even today in our society.

Just look at the social reaction to the change in the law of abortion! Imagine that mothers want to have the right to kill their babies in their womb. Killing babies cannot become a "human right"! Nobody has a right to kill.

Just look at the whole mess created with the legalization of drugs! I have never seen so many youths destroyed for life, as after the legalization of marijuana. Now we have to build mental hospitals, shelter for homeless kids and clinic for children who have inherited all kinds of psychological problem.

Just look at the whole question of gender dysphoria! Now you cannot tell a child if he or she is a boy or a girl! And if you try to convince him of one or the other, you can end up in jail. Since when we have decided to be born? Since when we have decided which gender our body can accept or not?

We Christians have a lot of work to do! If we cannot help others, at least we can help those we love. Jesus has warned us since the beginning: we will have problems, but not because we are causing them, but because the evil one will attack us in any way conceivable. Jesus wants us to face the tough reality of this world.

Yes, we need the fire of our love to overcome all this division and all this confusion. Ideologies, conferences, books and discourse will not change all this confusion! People have to feel the love of God! That is the only message they will believe and accept!

Enough with discussions and debates; the only thing the world needs today is the fire of the love of God. We Christians are the first ones to be called to this global challenge!

BLESSED SCALABRINI THE FOUNDER

If, as the Apostle St. John teaches us, we dare say that we are without sin, then we deceive ourselves and the truth of God is not in us. All of us in our lives, to various degrees, have something to be humble about. And a person who is, or has been a sinner, is a person who, quoting Tertullian's strong expression is born to penance: homo poenitentiae natus and as such he owes God a tribute of expiation. J.B. Scalabrini-Pastoral Letter on Penance-1895
