INCREDIBLE COMPASSION
UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

There is no simple solution to the complex problems our families are facing today. The Gospel of today is presenting a few insights, which are based on humility, compassion, and hope. They might not resolve our problems but at least they will help us to face them and go on.

The three parables recorded for us by the evangelist Luke give us a wide choice of attitudes we can internalize while going through the stressing events of our life. First, the parable of the Lost Sheep. Humility and compassion is key to the lost sheep. A son or a daughter who are lost in drugs and promiscuity need a lot of humility and compassion. Our natural reaction would be one of anger and revendication, but that would deepen their distance and depression. The good shepherd is ready to leave 99 sheep, that is all that he has, to save the lost one. Incredible but true! The heart of a father or a mother would leave everything to save one son or daughter.

Second the parable of the lost coin. This teaches us that there is no money to spare for the salvation of a soul. How many parents have lost their coins by investing in their children with no results or returns? And when they are able to see some fruits and results, they rejoice with all their friends.

This the parable of the prodigal son. This is one of the best pieces of literature ever written in history and it gives us one of the best images of the nature of God Himself, which is unconditional love. Here we have a comparison between human love (the older son) and divine love (the younger son). As soon as the younger son “comes to his senses” the love of God comes into action. The Father is waiting for the son. The Father runs to him. The father embraces and kisses him. The Father does not even want to hear excuses or justification, He organizes immediately a feast for all. He even restores his dignity by offering the ring and new expensive clothes. The Father re-establishes the filial relationship at no cost! Yes, this is our God! We are the prodigal children! And we are happy to have such a compassionate Father in heaven.
