Grains of Wheat from the Barns of Heaven

Inspirational quotes with St. J.B. Scalabrini

“The Lord is my Shepherd,
there is nothing I shall want” (Ps 23:1)

“How can Jesus Christ live in us? Through His spirit, which is a spirit of humility and charity.”
Pastoral Letter, Lent 1883

“I will not omit any efforts to become a father to the poor, a teacher to the unschooled, a guide to priests, a shepherd to all, so that having become all things to all people, I may gain all to Christ.” First Pastoral Letter, Como 1876

“The Word of God is equally needed as is faith. Faith is the most precious of all treasures, the source of all graces, the foundation of all virtues, the origin of our justification, the door to heaven; and faith can be obtained through the Word of God.” The Divine Word, Piacenza 1897

“Two great things I admire in heaven and on earth: in heaven the power of the Creator, on earth the power of Prayer. No matter how weak we humans are, if we pray, we become strong with the very power of God.” On Prayer, Piacenza 1905

“The Eucharist is the spring from which the soul draws the water welling up to eternal life; it is the place where our wounds are healed.” Devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, Piacenza 1902

“Do more to catechize the adults! The Catechism must be a powerful weapon in their hands to overcome the struggles of life and teach them to flee from sin, to sanctify their suffering through patience and live with Jesus Christ always, following his example.” Christian Education, Piacenza 1889

“Each Sunday, the four sources of Divine Mercy are open to us: the Word of the Gospel, prayer, sacrifice and the sacrament.” Honouring the Lord’s Day, Piacenza 1903

“Pray always! When you overcome evil, pray to keep yourself strong; if you sin, pray that you may rise from your deplorable state. Pray for one another. Pray with humility, trust and perseverance. Pray the prayer Jesus himself taught us.” On Prayer, Piacenza 1905

“Who does not need to hear God speaking to him/her, and saying to the heart the word which is sharper than any double-edged sword and penetrates to the point of division between the soul and the spirit?” About the Spiritual Exercises, Piacenza 1876

“It is important that God speaks in us first, and that we listen and be docile, obedient and attentive to what he says to our heart, so as to establish a righteous and holy life according to his Divine will.” About the Spiritual Exercises, Piacenza 1876
