Grains of Wheat from the Barns of Heaven

Inspirational quotes with St. J.B. Scalabrini

“What’s this? It’s like a new teaching, given with authority.” (MK 1:27)

“If we could penetrate God’s secrets, we would be astonished to see what a great place the prayer of the just occupies in the plan of Divine Providence and what beneficial effect it has over people’s lives.” On Prayer, Piacenza 1905

“The work of the priests could not fully achieve its purpose without the parents’ assistance. St. Gregory the Great states that the children’s first books are their parents’ lips. Yes, it is up to you, parents, to educate your children, as St. Paul teaches, in God’s discipline and holy law and the teachings of the Lord in the holy Gospels.” Christian Education, Piacenza 1889

“Virtue is a flower that sprouts here on earth only among thorns. The same virtue echoes the sound of ongoing war against us, the world and the flesh. Its echoes are the same as self-denial and sacrifice.” Pastoral Letter, 1883

“Everything is being reshuffled and evolving: but this overall reshuffling of all things would not benefit people or make them happier, unless the Catholic Church inspires it with the vision of a holier life by injecting faith in it.” 1st Synod 1879

“Let’s open our hearts ever wider, may our hope be calm and patient, and may we be steadfast in hoping. We will stand up to the wisdom of men and women of our time with the unsurpassable truth of God’s promises and will counter the world’s lack of faith with our unlimited trust.” Pastoral Letter, Lent 1988

“By witnessing truth with charity, you will dispel many prejudices. Even where the word of a priest is not accepted, you will help the poor understand that if he/she has a brother in you on earth, it is because he shares a common Father in heaven.” Speech to a charitable association

“The poor are the apple of God’s eyes and what we do to them we do to God himself.” Speech to a charitable association

“It is your task, o laypeople, to take possession of the social arena and to restore it to Christianity by working in it with an open mind, with tenacity of purpose, so that Christian spirituality may penetrate it and infuse all that is part and portion of humanity’s intellectual, moral and even physical life.” Union Action Prayer, Piacenza 1890

“We enter the public sphere, as untiring adversaries of evil wherever it may hide; we enter as people who following Jesus’ example, know how to put up with evil, without ever approving it.” The Catholic Church, Piacenza 1888
