Walking a Path of Conversion

“Turn away from sin and believe in the Good News” (Mk 1:15)

“God is love, and the more our souls are joined to God, the more we share in the fullness of love.”
Address for the Episcopal Jubilee of My Friend Bonomelli

“God’s love is infinite and the object of his love must also be infinite. Since Jesus, his beloved Son, became man, in Jesus, God loves every man and woman, in Jesus. God embraces everyone and everything.” Pastoral Letter 1878

“Who, then, is Jesus Christ? He is the Only Begotten Son of God, made man for us; he is the Word through whom all things in heaven and on earth were created and without whom nothing exists of what has been made. Jesus Christ is the light of the world, he is the way, the truth, the life.” Pastoral Letter 1878

“Union of Jesus Christ with the Christian soul: here is the foundation of the whole supernatural order. Because of it, the human person can share in the divine nature and, thus, also elevate all of creation. Everything is yours – St. Paul cries out: the world, life, death, the present and the future. You belong to Christ and Christ belongs to god.” Homily in 1894

“While the world is stirring, dazzled by its own progress, while man is proud of his conquests over matter, and directs nature as its master, digging into the heart of the earth, subjugating lightning, mixing the waters of the oceans by cutting isthmuses, reducing distances; as peoples develop and renew themselves, races mingle, grow or perish; through all this noise and above these innumerable accomplishments and not without them, a larger, more important and more sublime work is being carried out: the union in God, through Jesus Christ, of al souls of good will.” October 1892
