DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Grains of Wheat from the Barns of Heaven

St. John Baptist Scalabrini

TO FOLLOW THE RISEN ONE

"Jesus drew near and began to walk with them" (Lk 24:15)

4.1 - "Ideas do move forward. They are the ideas of truth, charity and peace. Step aside and let them walk. Victory cannot fail and you can always say that you have opened the way for it." To Bishop Bonomelli, 6.6.1889

4.2 - "If God in his loving will is slow to listen to our prayers, then we will double with unlimited trust our confidence in his promises." Lenten Pastoral Letter 1877

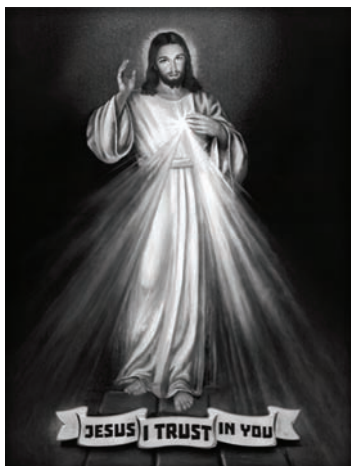

4.3 - "I share with all my soul in your sorrows and pains, but we must be strong and bear with great dignity the weight of the present tribulation. I am sure that in a not-too-distant future justice will be done to you." To Bishop Bonomelli, 28.4.1890

4.4 - "The Jubilee, by which every fifty years the property returned to the first owners, ensured the continuity of the small owners against the intrusive action of the rich and powerful. These seeds of social legislation, understood in the sense of defending the dispossessed and making their condition less harsh, flourished through the work of the Divine Redeemer." Socialism and the Action of the Clergy, Piacenza 1899

4.5 - (To the priests) "Put on the inner tenderness of the Divine Shepherd and speed your step on the trail of the lost sheep. Seek to increase within you the qualities needed to fulfill such a demanding ministry; always be willing at any time of day to welcome those who come to you, since we are not made for us, but for God and for our brothers and sisters." Jubilee Pastoral Letter 1879

4.6 - "Holiness is purity consecrated to God and fully committed to the glory of God. Holiness, therefore, together with purity of mind, requires continuous immolation; holy, in fact, is what is burned and offered on the altar in honor of God." 2nd Address at the 2nd Synod, Piacenza 1893

4.7 - "The Jubilee is a kind of amnesty, which supplements our short penance, it is forgiveness of guilt and remission of punishment, it is peace of conscience, it is true and ineffable joy." Lenten Pastoral Letter 2.2.1900
