TO FOLLOW THE RISEN ONE

April

"Jesus drew near and began to walk with them"
(Lk 24:15)

4.8.1934 - [Religious vows are reintroduced in the Scalabrinian Institute with a celebration presided by the Servant of God Card. Raffaello Carlo Rossi in the Church of St. Charles in Piacenza] (To the priests) "May your people see you often before the Tabernacle, either praying the Office, or for the examination of your conscience; may they notice that, before leaving your residence, you draw near to Christ for his help and grace, and also see you on your return go to Jesus to thank him." III Address at the Third Synod, Piacenza 30.8.1899

4.9 - "With fear and trembling I submitted myself to the ministry entrusted to me, reassured by the firm hope that he who strengthens my will and enables my actions, will not fail to support me with his favor and help me constantly." 1 st Pastoral Letter, Como 1876

4.10 - "I will model myself, like St. Paul, on the Author and Center of our faith, who for the glory of God and the salvation of our souls became man and was obedient unto death on the cross." 1 st Pastoral Letter, Como 1876

4.11 "The great favor to which our eternal salvation is bound and on which it depends, is the Word of God. If faith comes from hearing the Word of God, the Word of God is of equal necessity as faith." The Divine Word, Piacenza 18

4.12 1889 [Blessed Scalabrini establishes the Italian St. Raphael Society, for the commitment of the laity in emigration] "Jesus Christ must be the beginning and the end of our work, the soul of our soul, the life of our life." Lenten Pastoral Letter 1883

4.13 - "It is a matter of faith, my dear ones, that we of ourselves, without the help of divine grace, can do nothing with regards to our future life." Lenten Pastoral Letter 1899

4.14 - "The sign the divine Word has been a fruitful in us are its works, because if faith without charity is dead, charity without works is not charity." Lenten Pastoral Letter 1897
