TO FOLLOW THE RISEN ONE

"Jesus drew near and began to walk with them"
(Lk 24:15)

"The glorious Body of the Lord places the luminous seed of Resurrection and incorruptibility in our corruptible bodies, revealing all the splendor of our hidden life in God." Devotion to the Blessed Sacrament 1902

"If it is a good thing to spend time during the day before Jesus, it is just as beautiful to keep watch at his feet in the silence and quiet of the night." Devotion to the Blessed Sacrament 1902

"Jesus Christ portrayed himself in his Church." Homily 1902

"We are one body in Jesus Christ." The Catholic Church 1888

"The identities and the plans of Christ and his Bride, the Church are inseparable." Homily 1880

"Jesus Christ comes out of the tomb, triumphant and immortal. So also, the persecuted Church! Here she rises again, more glorious, stronger and more beautiful than before." Homily 1880

"The Church had her first origin on Pentecost Day, and so we can say she is an ongoing Pentecost throughout the centuries." Homily 1879

"The Church, says the Apostle St. Paul, is the body of Jesus Christ. So, now, as the members of a body are united among themselves for a continuous exchange of mutual services. So also, we share in the same goods of Jesus, our Head." Homily 1897

"As Jesus teaches us: our work must be like the mustard seed, which later on, with the Lord's blessing, might grow more and more." Letter to Card. R. Merry del Val May 1905
