PENTECOST: POWER OF UNITY

There are many aspects of the celebration of Pentecost, and I believe that the most important one is the sign of Unity.

On the account of the Acts of the Apostles we read first of all that the “disciples were all together in one place”. Already we see that after the Ascension of Jesus, the disciples remained together in the upper room, waiting for the “Spirit of the Father” as Jesus had told them. They were united in prayer with the Blessed Mother.

Once the Holy Spirit descended upon them in form of “tongues of fire” they all were transformed into the same “body of Christ”; they felt deeply connected with Jesus and united among themselves. In the same book of the Acts of the Apostles it is written that “they were one mind and one heart”. Actually, it was the fulfillment of the promise/prayer of Jesus to the Father before the Last Supper, that they “may be one, as you Father and I are one”.

Then when they went out of the room and began to speak to the crowd, they were speaking with one language, even though there were many people from many nations, languages and cultures. They all were receiving the same message. Pentecost is the reverse of the Tower of Babel; before in the Old Testament, God had confused their languages, from one into many, so that they were not able to communicate any longer; now at Pentecost, from many languages they are united into one single language of faith. Pentecost is the image of the Church, which from many nations is forming one community. It is also the celebration of us immigrants, who from many countries come to the same parish community to form one unique Church of Christ.

Unity is the last wish of Jesus; Pentecost is the fulfillment of that wish: that all may be one. All the gifts of the Holy Spirit are given in order to form the unity of the Body of Christ, the Church.
