Discipleship is Mission

The Gospel reading today speaks of discipleship. Just as Jesus has called and sent the first twelve apostles, he is also calling and sending us for a mission. In other words, discipleship entails a mission. We are called therefore to do something in the vineyard where “the harvest is ready but the laborers are few”.

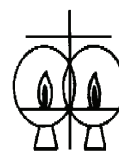

During the time of Jesus, there were so many people who were in need of help. It is the same during our time, if not, more so. Just look around us or read the dailies, people everywhere are hungry for the Good News, hungry for physical food, and are in need of healing as well as comfort. Who will proclaim to them the Kingdom of God and tend to their needs?

The task of spreading the Word of God and serving the needy is not only for the priests or pastors. Every baptized Christian is called to share in the unfinished work of creation and redemption as priest, prophet and king (1 Peter 2:9). Just as Jesus was moved with compassion, may the Holy Spirit move each one of us to move out of our comfort zones and reach out to the last, least and lost people in society.

The gifts of the Holy Spirit has been given to us freely, let us serve the people of God freely, without expecting reward or recognition. For it is Jesus whom we actually serve and it is Jesus who will bless us and give what is due to us whether at the present time and in the life beyond. It is therefore very timely at this point in our life to ask the question: What shall I do to heed the command of Jesus to go to the lost sheep, proclaim the kingdom of heaven and cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, and drive out demons? And to do all these things for free?

POPE FRANCIS Prayer intentions for June

We pray that the international community may commit in a concrete way to ensuring the abolition of torture and guarantee support to victims and their families.

Happy Father's Day

Today, let us bless the Lord for the gift of life and be full of gratitude to all our fathers, living and deceased, for their love and example to us.

SHARE LIFE Did you know that no one is turned away from ShareLife-funded agencies due to inability to pay? This is all thanks to your generosity to our annual appeal. It is through your support that ShareLife agencies are able to help the most vulnerable in our community and around the world. Thank you for your generosity. Thus far our parish has raised $26,700.00 toward our goal of $49,500.00 Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, or at sharelife.org/donate.
