The Lord Is Gracious and Compassionate

The Gospel challenges us to look at what is our highest priority in life. Jesus remarks that if we place our family relations (or our style of living) on a level above our relationship with GOD, then we may lose it all. Our number one priority has to be our living out the relationship with GOD. Tied into that, we must be willing to risk it all by picking up our cross and following the Master-Teacher. In doing so, we will be able to recognize the prophet, the righteous, and the needy in our midst. We will extend to them the hospitality and graciousness they deserve because they are the chosen ones of GOD.

We are called to continue to develop and deepen our relationship with GOD and at the same time live out that relationship in the way we treat the people around us. If we seek first the Reign of GOD in our lives, then all the other pieces of the puzzle will come together. If we realize the graciousness of our GOD towards us, we will extend the same graciousness to others. So when Jesus says we must put GOD above our family, it means that when we center our attention on GOD, we will be able to love our family better.

If, on the other hand, we think of our family more than GOD, we will have our priorities mixed up and may not give to our families what GOD wants them to have. If we seek the Reign of GOD over us, everything will fit in place and we will end up being more gracious, more hospitable, more loving to everyone and in every situation. As we sink in the depths of GOD's graciousness, we will put to death our selfishness, we will die to sin. It is then that GOD will raise us up to the new life.

What is my number one priority? Do I seek to put GOD first so that I can serve my family, the people at my work, and the community around me even more generously? Do I express my gratitude to GOD for the divine graciousness bestowed upon me? What can I do to make others more aware of GOD's graciousness?
