Mission and Blessings

In the first reading today, we hear about Amos. He was a simple shepherd. God called him to be a prophet. Amos did not seek this role. He obeyed God’s call and spoke His message to Israel. This shows us that God can call anyone, no matter their background.

In the second reading, we learn about the spiritual blessings we have in Christ. We are chosen to be holy. We are redeemed by Jesus’ sacrifice. We are sealed with the Holy Spirit. This reminds us that our blessings are not just physical but spiritual.

The Gospel reading shows Jesus sending out the Twelve apostles. He gives them authority over unclean spirits. He tells them to travel light and rely on God. They are to preach repentance and heal the sick. This teaches us about faith and trust in God.

Living Out Our Call

God calls each of us to a mission. Amos was called from being a shepherd. The apostles were called from their daily work. We too are called to serve God in our lives. We should listen for His call and be ready to respond.

Trust is key in our mission. Jesus told the apostles to take only what was necessary. They had to rely on the hospitality of others. This means trusting God to provide for us as we do His work.

Repentance is also important. The apostles preached repentance to everyone they met. This is a call for us to turn away from sin and follow God more closely. Repentance leads to a closer relationship with God.

Our Response

We are blessed with spiritual riches. Ephesians reminds us of this truth. We are chosen, redeemed, and sealed with the Holy Spirit. These blessings should inspire us to live holy lives and share God’s love with others.

The readings for today remind us of our mission. God calls us to serve Him and trust in His guidance. As we respond to His call, we grow in faith and love.
