Today's readings speak about the end times, judgment, and the hope we have in Jesus. These readings remind us to stay strong in our faith, trust in God's promises, and look forward to the resurrection and eternal life.

Final Judgment

In the first reading from Daniel, we hear about a time of great distress. This passage tells us about the final judgment, where those who are wise will shine brightly, and those who lead others to righteousness will be like stars forever. It encourages us to live wisely and help others follow God's ways.

As we reflect on this, we should examine our lives. This reading challenges us to be mindful of our actions and their impact on others.

Christ's Sacrifice

In the second reading from Hebrews, we learn about Jesus' sacrifice. Jesus offered one sacrifice for sins and then sat down at the right hand of God. His sacrifice made us holy, and there is no need for further offerings for sin.

Reflecting on this, we can see how much God loves us. Jesus' sacrifice was once and for all. We should live in a way that honors this gift, knowing that we are forgiven and made holy through Him.

Hope in Tribulation

In the Gospel, Jesus speaks about the coming of the Son of Man during a time of great tribulation. He describes signs in the heavens and on earth, but He also assures us that His words will never pass away. This passage reminds us of the hope we have even in difficult times.

Reflecting on this Gospel, we can find comfort in Jesus' words. We are reminded that no matter how hard things get, we have hope in His return. This should encourage us to keep our faith strong and trust in His promises.

Temporary World

Our world is only temporary. Life has many endings and new beginnings, but God remains constant and eternal. Jesus teaches that this world will come to an end. He knew his earthly life was nearing its end as he entered Jerusalem. There were plots against him, and evil was present. Despite this, Jesus stayed true to his mission to gather God's children and save them from destruction.

Remember that this world is not our final home. Jesus has shown us the way, and we must stay focused on our journey to God. Trust in God's constant presence and be alert to His signs, both big and small.
