The readings for today offer important lessons about obedience to God, worship, and love. They remind us of the joy and responsibility that come with following Jesus.

Obedience to God

The apostles stood firm in their faith when questioned by the high priest. They insisted on obeying God rather than men. This teaches us the importance of staying true to God's commands, even when it is difficult. Obedience to God requires courage and trust.

We face many situations where we must choose between obeying God or following the world. The apostles' example encourages us to stand firm in our faith. By putting God first, we show our commitment to His will.

Worship of the Lamb

In the second reading, John sees countless angels and every creature worshipping the Lamb. Worship brings us closer to God. When we join in the worship of Jesus, we acknowledge His greatness and our need for Him. It helps us focus on what truly matters and strengthens our relationship with Him.

Love for Jesus

In the Gospel, Jesus asks Peter three times if he loves Him. Each time, Peter affirms his love, and Jesus tells him to care for His followers. Loving Jesus means more than words. It means taking action. True love for Jesus is shown in how we treat those around us. By caring for others, we show that our love for Jesus is genuine and strong.

From Followers to Friends

In the Gospel, Jesus calls Peter and the disciples beyond the teacher-student relationship. Up to this point, he has been their rabbi or "great one" and they have been his followers. He moves from being their rabbi to calling them friends. This marks a deeper level of relationship with Jesus. Our journey with Jesus also moves from knowledge to deep, lasting commitment.
