FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The 4th Sunday, also known as Good Shepherd Sunday, focuses on Jesus as our caring and guiding Shepherd.

Sharing the Voice of the Good Shepherd

We learn about the boldness of Paul and Barnabas in spreading the Good News about Jesus. Their example shows us the importance of sharing the message of the Good Shepherd. Just as they spoke courageously, we too must be willing to share the Good News so others can hear Jesus' voice.

To help others hear the voice of the Good Shepherd, we must speak about Jesus in our daily lives. This can be done through kind words, loving actions, and sharing our faith stories. When we do this, we help others recognize the voice of Jesus and follow Him.

The Inclusive Call of the Good Shepherd

In Revelation, a great multitude stands before God. This vision shows us that salvation is offered to everyone. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, wants all people to follow Him, not just a select few.

Jesus, our Good Shepherd, knows each of us by name. He cares for us and guides us on the right path. When we listen to His voice, we find the way to true peace and happiness. He reaches out to all of us, inviting us to be part of His flock. By following Him, we join the great multitude standing before God, united in faith and love.

Jesus, Our Guiding Shepherd

The passage in the Gospel of John happens before the resurrection. Jesus and His disciples are in Jerusalem for Hanukkah. During Hanukkah, a reading from the Book of Numbers, where Moses hears God's voice (Numbers 7:89), is traditional. So, it makes sense that Jesus would talk about His sheep hearing His voice.

In the Book of Numbers, only Moses hears God's voice. But Jesus brings a new message. He wants everyone, not just priests and prophets, to hear Him. This shows His love and care for all people. God is speaking to us, but we need to listen. The noise and distractions of the world can make it hard to hear Him. We must find quiet times and places to focus on His message.

Let us reflect on Jesus as our Good Shepherd. We are reminded to listen to His voice, share the Good News, and embrace His inclusive call. By doing so, we join the great multitude of believers, united in faith and guided by His love.
