The readings today invite us to reflect on God's presence among us, the importance of love and faith in times of betrayal, and the need to support one another in our faith journeys.

God's Presence Among Us

We reflect on the comforting theme of God dwelling with His people. In Revelation, we see a vision where God lives with us, wiping away every tear and taking away pain and suffering. This image assures us of God's constant presence and care in our lives, especially during difficult times.

We are encouraged recognize and cherish God's presence in our lives. It reminds us to seek His guidance and feel His comfort. By embracing this closeness, we can live with a deeper sense of peace and assurance that God is always with us.

Love and Faith in the Face of Betrayal

Jesus is aware of His impending betrayal by Judas and the plots against Him. Despite this, Jesus chooses to speak about love and service, showing His trust in the Father.

Paul and Barnabas encourage the early Church to remain strong in their faith. They show us the importance of community and support. In the face of hardships, they continue to spread the Gospel, teaching us that faith and perseverance go hand in hand.

God is with us, wiping away our tears and promising a future free of pain and suffering. This vision encourages us to hold on to our faith, knowing that God is always near.

Jesus' new commandment to love one another as He has loved us is a powerful message. Despite knowing He would be betrayed, Jesus focuses on love and service. His example teaches us to love others even in difficult times and to trust in God's plan.

Supporting Each Other in Love

Helping and supporting one another in our faith journeys means being there for each other through both good and bad times. It means offering a listening ear, a helping hand, and a kind word. By doing this, we follow Jesus' example and build a community rooted in love and care.

The 5th Sunday of Easter Year C calls us to reflect on how we can better support each other in our faith. Love and community go hand in hand. By loving and supporting one another, we live out the true essence of our faith and strengthen the bond within our community.
