The Ascension of the Lord celebrates Jesus' return to heaven after completing His mission on earth. This event provides us with hope, joy, and a renewed sense of purpose.

Hope of Heaven

Jesus' ascension gives us hope that we will be with Him in heaven. The second reading from Hebrews talks about Jesus entering heaven to appear before God for us. This is a promise that we, too, can share in this eternal life.

Knowing that Jesus is in heaven, interceding for us, gives us confidence in our faith. We should approach God with trust and sincerity, knowing Jesus is there for us. It is a time to reflect on our own journey to heaven. It inspires us to stay faithful and share this hope with others. We are reminded that our mission is to spread the Good News and live as witnesses to Jesus' love and promises.

Finding Joy

The disciples worshiped Jesus and were filled with joy after the Ascension. The Gospel reading from Luke shows them returning to Jerusalem with great joy. This joy came from knowing that Jesus completed His mission and promised to send the Holy Spirit.

In our own lives, we can find joy in the promise of Jesus' presence with us through the Holy Spirit. The disciples' joy also came from their trust in Jesus' words. They believed He would return and take them to heaven. This hope can fill our hearts with joy too. Trusting in Jesus' promises helps us face challenges with a positive spirit.

The Mission Continues

After the resurrection, Christ stopped appearing to the disciples. Now, His power works through us. We must carry on the mission of proclaiming the Good News to the world.

The Gospels all tell about the ascension of Jesus. Luke gives the most detailed account. This event is similar to the ascension of holy men like Elijah, Abraham, Moses, and Isaiah, who were taken to God's throne through His power.

The ascension marks the final event of the incarnation. Jesus, who came to us through the Holy Spirit, now returns to God. In His final words, He promises the Holy Spirit to the disciples. Through Christ, we all hope to be with God one day.
