The 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time calls us to reflect on God's care, the message of the Cross, and the call to discipleship. Through the readings, we see the joy of trusting in God, the importance of humility, and the hope found in sharing His love with others.

Rejoicing in God's Care

The first reading reminds us to rejoice in God's care. Isaiah describes how God comforts His people, bringing joy and peace to their lives. This image of God's care is like that of a loving mother who provides for her children with tenderness and compassion.

This message encourages us to trust in God, even in difficult moments. His care is constant, and His blessings are all around us. By recognizing His love in our lives, we can find strength and peace, no matter the challenges we face.

Rejoicing in God's care also calls us to gratitude. We can look at the blessings in our lives and thank God for them. It helps us to see that even in times of struggle, God is present, guiding and helping us.

Glory in the Cross

In the second reading, Paul reminds us to glory only in the Cross of Christ. The Cross shows us how much God loves us and brings salvation to the world. It is not about worldly success or personal pride, but about what Christ has done for us.

This reflection on the Cross invites us to live humbly, trusting in God's plan rather than our own achievements. Paul's message shows us that our lives should center on Jesus and His sacrifice, not on seeking approval or power from others.

When we focus on the Cross, it changes how we see our lives. It helps us to embrace faith, hope, and love, even in the face of challenges. The Cross reminds us that Jesus is our greatest source of strength and that His love is always with us.

The Joy and Challenge of Discipleship

The Gospel gives us a glimpse of life with Jesus and His disciples. The disciples are sent on a mission, preaching and healing in Jesus' name. Their work brings joy, even though it involves hardship. They are learning and growing, becoming more like Jesus through their actions.

Jesus also gives clear guidance to His disciples. He tells them to travel in pairs, rely on God, and accept the hospitality of others. He reminds them to stay humble and to move on when rejected. These instructions show us how to live as disciples today, trusting in God and focusing on the mission of love and peace.

SHARE LIFE Your support of ShareLife-funded agencies, like the Cardinal Ambrozic House of Providence, gives seniors, like John, a sense of belonging. As one of many valued residents who live with dementia, his cognitive impairment can leave him feeling vulnerable and confused. Your compassion makes it possible for him to be surrounded by both his family and caregivers in a comforting environment. A Thus far we have raised $38,627.00 toward our goal of $54,500.00. Please give at the parish, or at sharelife.org/donate.

Prayer intentions of the Holy Father

For the month of July 2025

For formation in discernment

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.
