The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time challenges us to examine our priorities and how we live as followers of Jesus.

God Cares for the Poor

The first reading reminds us of God's deep concern for the poor and His condemnation of dishonesty and greed. It highlights how some people exploit others for personal gain, showing disregard for justice and fairness. God sees these actions and warns of consequences for those who harm the vulnerable.

Do we treat others fairly? Are we attentive to the needs of the poor and those who cannot defend themselves? God calls us to a higher standard, one rooted in justice and love.

Caring for the poor is not just a good deed; it reflects God's own care for humanity. As disciples, we are called to reflect His goodness by helping those in need.

Praying for Leaders and Peace

The second reading encourages us to pray for everyone, especially leaders and those in authority. This teaching reminds us that peace and order are gifts from God, and our prayers are part of how He works in the world. By praying for leaders, we ask God to guide their decisions for the good of all.

When we pray for leaders, we are not only seeking better governance but also showing our trust in God's plan. This act of prayer unites us with others and reminds us of our role in fostering peace and justice.

It can be easy to criticize leaders, but prayer takes us deeper. It invites us to hope for wisdom and goodness in their actions.

Learning from the Shrewd Steward

The Gospel tells the story of a steward who mismanages his master's wealth and then acts shrewdly to secure his future. Though his motives are selfish, his actions show the value of generosity. Even a man driven by greed can see the importance of building relationships and gaining favor through kindness.

This parable challenges us to think about our own use of resources. Everything we have comes from God, and we are stewards of His blessings. Do we use what we have wisely? Do we share generously, or do we hold on tightly, thinking only of ourselves?

Jesus teaches that if even the greedy can recognize the benefits of generosity, Our faith calls us to be kind and compassionate, not for personal gain, but because we know that God has given us everything. By sharing with others, we reflect God's love and fulfill His call to care for those around us.
