The readings today present a striking message about the reversal of fortunes. Those who have much are warned of the dangers of ignoring those who have little.

Amos Challenges Us to Look Beyond Comfort

The reading from Amos delivers a strong warning. It speaks to those who live in comfort and ignore the suffering of others. Amos criticizes those who indulge in luxury while remaining blind to the needs of the poor. This message is not just for the people of his time but for us as well.

We often find ourselves comfortable in our routines and possessions. It's easy to focus on what we have and forget about those who are struggling. This kind of complacency can lead us away from God's path. Our blessings should never make us blind to the needs around us.

Jesus Shows the Danger of Ignoring Others

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of Lazarus and the rich man. This story is a clear reminder of what can happen when we focus only on ourselves. The rich man enjoyed his wealth while ignoring the suffering of Lazarus, who was right outside his door. After death, the rich man faced judgment, and Lazarus found peace.

Jesus's message is clear: wealth and comfort are not the problem, but selfishness is. When we fail to see the suffering of others, we turn away from God's call. The rich man's downfall wasn't his wealth but his choice to do nothing for Lazarus. Are we aware of the needs around us? Do we use what we have to help others?

Paul Encourages Us to Live with Virtue

In the second reading, Paul gives Timothy practical advice. He urges him to seek virtues like faith, love, and gentleness. These virtues help us live a life focused on God and others, rather than ourselves.

Living a virtuous life means putting God first and serving others. It means being patient, kind, and steadfast even when life is hard. These qualities help us stay close to God and prepare for what is to come. They also remind us that true wealth is found in our relationship with God and our care for others.

Today's readings challenge us to examine our lives and ask whether we are like the rich man, insulated from the needs of others by our own comfort. They invite us to consider a life where our greatest joy comes not from what we have, but from what we give. This transformation is what God seeks for us, a life where we are truly rich in mercy and compassion.
