The 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time invites believers to reflect on who Jesus is and what his mission means.

The Spirit Rests on Jesus

Today continues the story of Jesus after his baptism. John the Baptist sees Jesus and tells the people that he is the Lamb of God. He also explains that he saw the Spirit come down on Jesus and remain with him. This was a sign that Jesus was the one sent by God.

Today reminds believers that Jesus was chosen and sent by God. He is not just another teacher or prophet. He is the Son of God, filled with the Spirit, ready to lead people to salvation.

Called in the Womb

Today includes a reading from Isaiah about God's servant. The passage says that the servant was called from the womb. This means God had a plan for him before he was even born. The same idea is found in the reading from Paul. We were all chosen by God before birth to do his work. This reminds people that life has meaning from the very beginning. Each person is known and loved by God before they are even born. No life is an accident. Everyone is part of God's plan.

It can be hard to understand what God is calling someone to do. Even the prophets struggled at times. But the reading from Isaiah gives hope. It shows that God has a purpose for each person, even when life is difficult.

The Lamb of God

Today focuses on John the Baptist's words about Jesus. He calls Jesus the Lamb of God. This is an important title. It connects Jesus to the sacrifices of the Old Testament. The lamb was offered to take away sin. John is telling people that Jesus will be the sacrifice for them.

Because Jesus is the Lamb of God, every human life has dignity. If Jesus gave his life for all people, then every life is important. The sick, the poor, the unborn, the elderly—every person matters to God.

The 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time calls believers to remember what Jesus has done. His sacrifice is not just something from the past. It is something that continues to bring people closer to God.
