The 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time brings a message of hope, calling, and unity. The readings show how God's light shines in the darkness, how Jesus calls ordinary people to follow Him, and how the Church should stay united in faith.

Light in the Darkness

The 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time reminds people that God brings hope even in difficult times. The first reading speaks of Zebulun and Naphtali, lands that suffered under foreign rule. The people there lived in fear and uncertainty, but God promised to bring them light. Jesus fulfills this promise by beginning His ministry in Galilee. The land that once knew suffering now hears the message of hope. Jesus teaches, heals, and calls people to follow Him. He shows that God has not forgotten His people.

Many people feel like they are in darkness at times. Life can be full of struggles, disappointments, and uncertainty. The message today reminds people that God's light is still shining. Jesus is present, bringing hope and calling people to trust in Him.

Jesus Calls Ordinary People

In the Gospel, Jesus calls fishermen to follow Him. This is surprising because most rabbis would prefer students who were already well-educated in the law. But Jesus does not look for the best or the most important people. He calls ordinary workers who are willing to follow Him.

God does not ask people to be perfect before they follow Him. He calls people just as they are. God can use them, no matter their background or abilities. All that is needed is a willing heart.

Unity in the Church

Paul's letter to the Corinthians warns about divisions in the Christian community. Some people were following different leaders instead of staying focused on Jesus. Paul reminds them that faith should unite people, not divide them.

The Church is made up of many different people with different backgrounds and talents. This diversity should be a strength, not a reason for arguments. Instead of focusing on differences,

The message of unity is still important. People can have different opinions, but they should not let disagreements weaken their faith or relationships. Today reminds people to focus on Jesus and build a Church where all are welcome and valued.
