FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The readings for today, Good Shepherd Sunday, invite us to see Jesus as the Good Shepherd who cares for His flock.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

The image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd is powerful and comforting. He knows each one of us by name and loves us deeply. He calls us to follow Him and promises to lead us to eternal life. As we reflect on this image, we can ask ourselves if we are listening to Jesus' voice in our daily lives. Are we following His teachings and trusting in His care? The Good Shepherd invites us to a relationship of love, trust, and obedience.

Protection and Perseverance

The Good Shepherd offers protection from those who would lead us astray. He guides us to the gates of heaven, but we must hear His voice and follow. This involves repentance and a commitment to do what He asks.

In following Jesus, we may face suffering and difficulties. 1 Peter 2:20b-25 reminds us to follow Christ's example of patient suffering. Through our struggles, we can find strength in knowing Jesus walks with us, offering His guidance and protection.

A Community of Believers

We are not alone in our journey. We are part of a larger community of believers, the Church, led by Christ Himself. As members of this community, we are called to support and care for one another, just as the Good Shepherd cares for His sheep.

Baptism brings us into this community and fills us with the Holy Spirit. In Acts, many were baptized and became part of the early Church. This sense of community strengthens our faith and helps us grow together.

Being part of the Church means we support each other in our faith journey. We find comfort in our shared belief in the Good Shepherd who suffered for us. Reflecting on the readings for today reminds us of our role in this community.
