FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The 5th Sunday of Easter offers lessons on faith, service, and trust in Jesus.

Unity, Service, and Leadership in the Early Church

The First Reading today shows how the early Christians faced problems and worked together to solve them. Some widows were not getting the food they needed. The apostles saw the problem and took action. They chose seven men to help so that everyone was cared for, and they could focus on teaching and prayer. This moment in the early Church teaches the importance of unity.

Leadership and delegation are also key lessons. The apostles knew they could not do everything alone. They trusted others to take on responsibilities. This teaches us to recognize our own limits and share the work with others.

Trusting in the Words of Jesus

The Gospel today brings words of comfort and hope. Jesus tells His disciples not to be troubled and to trust in Him. He speaks about preparing a place for them and promises that they will be with Him. These words were meant to encourage His followers as He prepared to leave them. Jesus also tells them that those who believe in Him will do great works. This does not mean miracles alone, but also acts of love, kindness, and service. His followers continue His mission by bringing hope to others. Each person has a role in sharing God's love through daily actions.

Living the Way of Jesus

Jesus calls Himself the way, the truth, and the life in the Gospel. This means more than just believing in Him. It means following His example in how we live each day. He does not just teach about God—He shows us how to live in relationship with Him.

Living the way of Jesus means putting faith into action. It means caring for the poor, being honest, and treating others with kindness. It is not always easy, but Jesus shows that following Him leads to true life. He is the path that brings people closer to God.

Each person is called to be part of this mission. Each person has a role in building up the Church. By living according to Jesus' teachings, we help others see His truth. It is not just about knowing the truth but living it. Jesus shows the way, and we are called to follow Him with trust and love.
