ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time invites people to reflect on God's love, mercy, and call to action.

Living a Life of Obedience

In the first reading, God speaks to Moses and tells him to remind the Israelites of all that He has done for them. He rescued them from slavery, guided them through the desert, and brought them to Mount Sinai. Now, He asks them to obey His commandments and keep His covenant. If they do, they will be His special people.

God calls His people to be holy and to follow His commandments. Living in obedience is not about fear but about love. It means choosing to live in a way that pleases God and brings peace to the soul. Temptations and struggles can make it difficult. But God does not leave His people alone. He gives them strength and guidance.

The Radical Love of God

The second reading tells how Jesus died for sinners. He did not wait for people to be perfect. He gave His life while they were still far from God.

People often love those who love them back. But God loves without condition. He does not wait for people to deserve His mercy. He offers it freely, no matter their past mistakes. This love is a gift. It cannot be earned. It is not based on how good or worthy someone is. It comes from God's mercy. Through Jesus, people can be forgiven and made new. This is the heart of the Gospel.

No one is too far gone. No sin is too great. God is always ready to forgive and welcome His people back. His love does not change.

Embracing Our Role as Missionary Disciples

The Gospel tells how Jesus sees the crowds and feels compassion for them. He knows they need guidance and care. So, He sends His disciples to preach, heal, and help. Jesus does not send them alone. He gives them the power to do His work. They are called to trust in Him and share what they have received.

This mission is not just for the first disciples. It is for all Catholics. Everyone is called to share the good news. This does not always mean preaching. It can be small acts of kindness, prayer, or simply living a life that reflects Christ's love. Sometimes, people feel unworthy or unprepared to spread their faith. But Jesus does not choose perfect people. He chooses ordinary people and gives them the grace to serve. God invites everyone to follow Him, share His love, and be a light to others.
