The 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time reminds us to trust in God, even when we face difficulties.

Trusting God in Difficult Times

The first reading today tells the story of Jeremiah, a prophet who faced betrayal and opposition. Even his friends turned against him, waiting for him to fail. Despite this, he did not give up. He trusted that God was with him and would protect him.

When we feel rejected or afraid, we can remember Jeremiah’s courage. He did not stop following God’s call, even when it was difficult. His trust in God gave him strength. We, too, can rely on God’s care, knowing He sees our struggles and will never leave us. No matter what we face, we can trust that God is watching over us. He gives us the strength to continue our journey in faith.

The Gift of Grace in Christ

The second reading today talks about sin and grace. Sin entered the world through Adam, bringing suffering and death. But Jesus came to offer grace and life. His sacrifice on the cross made it possible for us to be forgiven and to have a new relationship with God.

Sometimes, people struggle with guilt or feel unworthy of God’s love. This passage reassures us that God’s grace is greater than any mistake we have made. He does not leave us in our brokenness. Instead, He offers forgiveness and a fresh start.

Fear God, Not People

The Gospel today shares Jesus’ words to His disciples. He tells them not to be afraid of those who can harm the body. Instead, they should fear God, who has authority over both body and soul. Jesus reminds them that God values each person deeply and watches over them with care. We can trust that He sees us, knows our struggles, and will never forget us.

Lord, help us to trust in You when we face challenges. Give us courage to stand firm in faith and strength to follow Your will. Remind us of Your love and care in every moment. Keep us from fear and doubt, and guide us always. Amen.
